COMPANY PROFILE

SUMMARY

Revance Therapeutics, headquartered in Mountain View, CA, is a privately-held biopharmaceutical company. Revance specializes in developing dermatology products using its transdermal delivery technology and tissue remodeling agents.

LICENSING AGREEMENTS

In December 2007, Medicis was to make an equity investment in Revance , as well as enter into an option agreement to acquire Revance or exclusively license North American rights to Revance's botulinum toxin type A aesthetic product. Medicis would make a $20 million investment in Revance, receiving preferred stock equivalent of almost 10%. Revance would be responsible for manufacturing worldwide, while Medicis had the right to exercise the option upon completion of certain regulatory milestones through the end of phase II development. On exercising the license option, Revance would receive an option payment, milestones and royalties. The companies also agreed to negotiate a development program for the application of Revance's drug delivery technology. In July 2009, Medicis obtained worldwide aesthetic and dermatological rights to the botulinum toxin type A product.

FINANCIAL

In June 2014, the company announced the pricing of underwritten public offering of 4 million shares priced at $30.50 each. The underwriters were granted 30-day option to purchase an additional 600,000 shares. At that time, the offering was expected to close on June 24, 2014. Later that month, the offering of 4.6 million shares was closed and the company raised net proceeds of approximately $131.3 million.

In June 2014, the company proposed an underwritten public offering of 3 million shares and expected to grant the underwriters a 30-day option to acquire an additional 450,000 shares.

In March 2014, the company was added to the Russell 2000 and Russell 3000 indexes.
